Mrs. George MacCulloch Miller, the Marquis de Tallyrand Perigord, of Paris, and Princess Poggia Suasa Ruspell, of Rome. She was an honorary member of the Colonial Dames.

Her husband, a manufacturer, and her brother, Lewis Curtiss Giles, of Stamford, survive her. Recently she gave an ambulance to the Italian army.

ADAM DANNER

Capen, Martha L. J. Fletcher, Dr. T. A. Colford, Laura F. Godfrey, Mary E. G. Davis, Frederica G. McCoy, Leonie B. De Coppet, J. A. H. McCreery, A. B.

Capen, in her 85th year. Funera services will be held on Monday, No-vember 27, at 3 p. m. Carriages will meet Lackawanna trains leaving OAVIS-On Thursday, November 23, 1818, at her residence, 1821 H at, Washington, D. C., Frederica Gore, widow of John Chandler Bancroft Davis and daughter of James Gore King, in the 88th year of her age. Funeral services at St. John's Church, Washington, on Monday afternoon, November 27, at 2:30 o'clock, Interment at Jamaica, L. L., on Tuesday morning, November 28, on arrival of train leaving Penn. Terminal, 33d at and Beventh av., at 10 o'clock; special car.

25. 1916, Jane Armstrong Howell de Coppet, daughter of the late Martin A. Howell. Funeral services at her late residence, 1 West 72d st., on Sunday, November 25, at 5 p. m.

GDFREY-At The Oakes, Brookiswn, Bridgeport, Conn., November 25, 1918, Mary Elizabeth Giles, wife of Jonathan Godfrey, aged fifty-nine years. Friends are invited to attend the funeral at her late home, The Oakes, on Monday, the 27th inst., at 1:30 o'clock p. m. Conveyances will meet friends at the railway station. Bridgeport, Conn. Burial in Oak Lawn Cemetery.

COY-On November 25, Leonie Brod-head, wife of John G. McCoy and daughter of J. Davis and Cecile Harvier Brodhead, aged 25 years. Fu-neral from St. Bernard's Church, Easton, Penn., Monday at 11 o'clock.

special car.

Hoboken at 2:30 p. m.

GLUCK'S GENIUS IN "IPHIGENIA"

Audience at Metropolitan Hears the Lyric Drama for First Time

ITS SECOND ACT A CLASSIC IDEAL

Songs and Mimicry of Ancient Rites Hold Hearers Spellbound

By H. E. KREHBIEL

which is foreign to the taste of to-day; which is foreign to the taste of the controlled in the contro which Gluck and his poet tried to fit to the lyric stage.

The singers, like Mr. Braun and Mr. Weil, who shouted and shrieked in the recitative dialogue as well as in the airs, even Mme. Kurt, who too often swamped every accented syllable with a flood of affected pathos, could as little make us think of the eternal types which the Greek poet created as Mr. Granville Barker's netors did in the Yale Bowl; but when to the exquisite music which Mr. Bodanzky borrowed from "Orfeo" Signors Galli spoke the language of religious ritual "with weven paces and waving arms" everlasting conceptions of ideal beauty and lasting conceptions of ideal beauty and truthfulness were made manifest to us.

Genius Does Its Work

Here, in the scenic investiture of the tragedy and in much of the acting and singing of Mme. Kurt and some of that of Mr. Sembach, the noble simplicity of Gluck's music had fit companionship, and even a conventional opera audience was compelled to realize how cotta brought the highest prices yestersting senius can make a drama Genius Does Its Work and Colonists Arranging Elaborate Pro-

onists are here longer than usual, so as to show the tunic beneath.

ay and are at the club house, ong others here for the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Russell, Mr. Mrs. Carroll Dana Winslow, Mr. Mrs. Peter A. Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Fles K. Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Edd. L. Burrill, Mrs. John J. McCook, Misses McCook, Mrs. J. W. Davis, rge St. George and Mrs. John Mur-

OLD WOOD BUST BRINGS $17,900

Rossellino's Work Reaches Top Price at the Davan-

FOR ARMOR SUITS

Million Dollar Receipts

which knows nothing of romantic love and intrigue, but celebrates only filial zati Palace sale in the American Art Philadelphia Society Man and Garner, fection and that friendship which is Galleries, which were again filled to ove without wings."

Knowers of French will regret that of hidders and buyers. The total for d not have been sung of bidders and guyers. The total tongue; sticklers for the session was $80,900, making a grand for his elaborate altar, now at the sand an organization known as Les ingine for the winter, and Mr. and per Thorn King will be in the stage. Among others who re for the early winter are res. Rodman Wanamaker, Mr. F. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. F. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. or timer. F. Harris and Mrs. or timer.

Other Prices Reached

FOX HUNT SPOILED BY WIND W. HARRIS, SR., Hounds Followed by Thirty in Two-Hour Run

Thirty persons turned out yesterday the meet of the American Fox Hounds, near Hempstead. High winds drave away all traces of scent, and after two hours' galloping the hounds were called off by Thomas Allison, were called off by Thomas Alisson, huntsman.

Those in the saddle were H. S. Ladew, W. Russell Grace, F. Ambrose Clark, Egerton Winthrep, Victor Morawitz, Harry T. Peters, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Miss Marion Hollins, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Ir., Miss Lida Louise Fleitmann, Malcolm Stevenson, Mrs. W. Goadby Loew, Miss Barbara Loew, Miss Elizabeth Kirlin, Mrs. T. K. Hudson, Mrs. James A. Burden and daughter and H. M. Nicholas. In the afternoon a drag hunt was held, with the English Hounds, the meeting place being at Bulls Hoad Hotel. The hounds were well handled by J. C. Cooley. Those in the saddle were James Park, Malcolm Stevenson, F. A. Clark, H. I. Nicholas and A. J. Davis.

TO HUNT BIG GAME IN CONGO

of Gerilla Fame, Head Expedition

(By Telegraph to The Tribune 1

That the hunt for big game will be one of the most searching ever attempted in the Congo was indicated to Alth fully as it can of any work of its kind that it was not born to die.

Let this suffice. This was the cast:

Press Marie Rapped battle of bids for possession of this example of the work of Rosselino, of the Donatello school (1409-70). It was provided by the property of the property of the work of Rosselino, of the Donatello school (1409-70). It was provided by the property of the property of the provided by the Minister of Beaux Arts to Obtain Release of Men from Trenches committee known as the French

A committee known as the French Music Society is planning to give recitals, concerts and musicals by artists who will come to America under the patronage of the French Minister of Fine Arts. Special leave of absence from the army has been given to the men and some are to come directly from the trenches. The members of the society include Frederick C. Bourne, James Byrne, Henry P. Davison, Andre de Coppet, Henry C. Frick, Robert Goelet, A. D. Juilliard, Otto H. Kahn, Clarence Mackay, Charles H. Sabin, William K. Vanderbilt, Henry Walters and George Wickersham.

K. Vanderbilt, Henry Walters and George Wickersham.

The artists will be under the direction of Loudon Charlton and Miss Martha Maynard. The first artist to be introduced will be Robert Lortat, who will be heard at the first of the "Six Sunday Nights at Sherry's," on December 3, and will give his own recital at Aeolian Hall on December 5. Mme. Gilles, soprano; M. Bonnet, organist, and an organization known as Les Instruments Anciens will be heard in January.

at the Keller Sale

Museums in Competition

There was keen competition in the bidding between representatives of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and of the Italian armor of the sixteenth century. C. Cranczay paid $1,700 for an Italian half-suit of the Museum of Art for some century. C. Cranczay paid $1,700 for a similar half-suit with the date 1571 engraved on it. G. Dupont's purchases included a small bronze cannon, with moulded muzzle and bands, mounted on a four-wheeled gun carriage of wood.

This sale was conducted by Thomas E. Kirby and Otto Bernet, his assistant.

wood.
This sale was conducted by Thomas
E. Kirby and Otto Bernet, his assistant.
The Davanzati Falace glass, bronze and wrought iron objects will be sold tomorrow afternoon, the linens on Tues day afternoon and the paintings at the Hotel Plaza to-morrow night.

TO BUY LINCOLN PAINTING
Memorial Association Issues Another
Appeal for Funds

W. W. Nolan for $500.
The total of the session was $11,645.50, and of the entire sale stry panel depicting a classical land-scape went to M. L. Jelline for $755, and edition for two and Louis Sherry gave $700 for two and Louis Sherry gave $700 for two silk Gobelin tapestry panels representing pastoral subjects after Boucher. Two mahogany Chippendale chairs which were in the possession of General George Washington during his residence in Philadelphia were sold to W. W. Nolan for $500.
The total of the session was $11,645.50, and of the entire sale $19,371.50.

DIES SUDDENLY

Years Old, Succumbs to Heart Disease

AMUSEMENT LEADER FOR HALF A CENTURY

Returned to Business After His Son Perished on the Titanic

William Harris, ar., dean of the theatrical profession, is dead. years, has been identified with the production of dozens of successful plays, owned an interest in scores of Philadelphia, Nov. 25. To procure a collection of mammals for the Smith-bonian Institution and to apend several months big game hunting, Alfred M. Collins, millionaire society man and supertaman, of Bryn Mawr, will leave this city in a few weeks for the Congo, in Africa.

The the break for the congo, and the father of two other well known managers, fell dead of the other of J. Davis Brodhead, of South Bethlehem, Penn., died at Easton yesterday. Her husband and two children survive her. She was the father of two other well known managers, fell dead of heart disease yesterday at his penn, and daughter of J. Davis Brodhead Mc-collins, millionaire society man and the sportsman, of Bryn Mawr, will leave the sport of the congo, and the sport of the sport of the congo, and the sport of the congo, and the sport of the congo, and the congo of the congo, and the congo of the congo of the congo, and the congo of the cal profession for more than fifty

Although he was ill on Wednesday. Mr. Harris was at his office in the was about to rise from bed yesterday was about to rise from bed yesterday morning.

Mr. Harris was the father of Henry B. Harris, a victim of the Titanic disaster, and of William Harris, jr. Following the drowning of his eldest son, Mr. Harris returned to active managerial work, from which he had third appears were any He was an entired appears were any He was an manageriai work, from which he had retired several years ago. He was an executor of the Henry B. Harris estate, which controls the Harris, Hudson and Fulton theatres, and had been financially interested in several recent productions by the Harris estate and William Harris, jr. It was the cider Mr. Harris's custom, howthe elder Mr. Harris's custom, however, not to appear actively as the producer of many plays. One recent exception was "The Thirteenth Chair."

came when he became part proprietor of the Howard Athenxum, in Boston, twenty years ago he came to New York.

In many theatrical productions he was a silent partner, and it is said that in this capacity he had frequently been connected with the enterprises of Charles Frohman, Daniel Frohman, of Charles Frohman, Daniel Frohman, Klaw & Erlanger and other large producers. Among the most successful productions which he made independently were "Are You a Mason!" "All on Account of Eliza" and "Damaged Goods." With his son, Henry B. Harris, he was the producer of such successes as "The Lion and the Mouse" and "The Third Degree." Under his management at various times were

MRS. JENNIE V. B. MASON MARIA J. MARZO

Widow of Ex-Consul Had Been Active in Benevolent Work in Europe In Benevolent Work in Europe
Paris, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Jennie V. Birchard Mason, widow of Frank H. Mason, former American Consul General in Paris, died here to-day. Her son, Dean B. Mason, American Consul at Algiers, was at her bedside. Mrs. Mason, who was seventy-two years old, was the daughter of Judge Matthew Birchard, of Warren, Ohio.

Mrs. Mason was one of the best known American women in Europe, known American women in Europe, having been active in social and benev-olent work in Basie, Marseilles, Frankfort, Berlin and Paris, where her hus-band served during his consular ca-reer. During the war she had been oc-cupled with Belgian relief work.

DR. THOMAS A. FLETCHER Dr. Thomas A. Fletcher, sixty-eight ears old, a former alderman of Mount years old, a former alderman of Mount Vernon, is dead at his home, 274 North Fulton Avenue, Mount Vernon, from apopiexy. Dr. Fletcher was in the dentistry business at Forty-fourth Street and Fifth Avenue, New York. He had served as a member of the Mount Vernon Board of Education and was one of the founders of the Chester Hill Methodist Episcopal Church.

MRS. JOHN G. M'COY

Thomas Morris, seventy-three years

Thomas Morris, seventy-three years old, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. F. Adams, on Sumner Avenue, Plainfield, N. J. He served in the Civil War in the 33d Regiment, New York Volunteers, and was a member of Morgan Post, G. A. R., New York

John D. Archbold Improving

At the Tarrytown residence of John D. Archbold, who was operated on for appendicitis, it was said yesterday that Mr. Arshbold was resting easily and was comfortable. The family and friends are encouraged by the patient's condition, and his recovery is recarded. condition, and his recovery is regarded as almost certain and fairly rapid, con-sidering his age.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY

Address by Marnus M. Marks on "The High Cost of Living." Park Arenus Mathedist Episcopal Chirch, Park Arenus and Eighty-sixth Street, 10 a. m. ddress by Performance.

ecture by F. W. Seam on "The Psychology of Praise," Criterion Theatre, Broadway and Forty-fourth Street, 11:13 a. m.

ENGAGED TO WED R. A. M'GOVERN

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Patroness for American Ambulance Film Exhibition

Adam Danner, fifty-five years old, who helped to develop Sherwood Park, a residential section between Yonkers and Mount Vernon, died at his home, on Bronx River Road, Mount Vernon, of 139 West Eighty-seventh Street, an- yesterday. nounce the engagement of their daughter, Maria Josephine, to Rudelph A McGovern, of Rio de Janeiro, formerly of New York. Miss Marzo made her debut about two years ago. Mr. Me-Govern is a graduate of the Columbia School of Mines and is a member of the Engineers' Club of New York. No

the Engineers' Club of New York. No
Johnson, wife of the late Frederic W.
Johnson, wife of the late Frederic W. date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Miss Anne Morgan, Miss Elisabeth Marbury and Miss Fannie Cottenet form the Hoboken at 2:30 p. m.

COLFORD—Laura Frances Colford, wife of Sidney Jones Colford, in the 80th year of her age, of pneumonia, at 313 West 57th st., New York City. She leaves a son, Sidney Colford, fr.; a sister, Mrs. McCarty Little, of Newport, R. I., and a brother, Mr. Edward Chartrand. She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Columbus O'Donnell Iselin and Mrs. Francis de R. Wissman, Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, November 28, at the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, 334 West 11th st. Interment at Sleepy Hollow, private. entertainment committee for the ben and Miss Fannie Cottenet form the entertainment committee for the benefit to be held in the Strand Theatre Friday afternoon, December 8, at which there will be the first opportunity for the public to see the films showing the work of the American Field Ambulance Corps in France William Faversham will recite a war poem by Emory Pottie; Mme. Bériza dramatic soprane, will sing the "Marseillaise," and Miss Ruth Draper will appear in a sketch "Vive la France." Fifty young acciety girls have offered to distribute souvenir programmes.

One of the first of the many winter entertainments will be the subscription dance to be given in the Biltmore to-morrow night by the Anne Brown Alumnae Association for the benefit of the free kindergarten maintained by the association at 48 Henry Street. Applications for tickets are being received by Mrs. C. Monteith Gilpin, at the Hotel New Weston, 49th Street and Madison Avenue, as well as by the patronesses, Mmes. Sterling Beardsley, Harrison K. Bird, Walter Cowperthwait, Richard Dwight, Frederick L. Duriand, Henry Fletcher, William S. Gould, Charles Snow Kellogs, Daniel Manning, Alfred D. Mittendorf and William H. Schmidt.

A. B. M'CREERY

A. B. M'CREERY

Stricken by Apoplexy in Grand Central Station on Way to Links

FLETCHER—At Mount Vernon, N. Y., suddenly, Friday, November 24, 1916, Dr. Thomas A. Fletcher. Funeral service at the Chester Hill Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Vernon, N. Y., Monday, 27th inst., at 8 o'clock p. M. While hurrying through the Grand Central Station yesterday to catch a train for Ardsley, where his brother was waiting to play golf with him. Andrew B. McCreery, secretary and treasurer of the James McCreery Realty Corporation, was stricken with apoplexy and fell dead.

Mr. McCreery was fifty-eight years old. He lived at the Hotel Royalton. 44 West Forty-fourth Street. His wife and two daughters are in Europe. He was the son of James McCreery, who established James McCreery & Co.

was the son of James McCreery, who established James McCreery & Co. Dr. D. H. M. Gillespie, of the Emergency Hespital in the Grand Central Station, identified the body by cards and letters upon it. One of these showed him to be a member of the Ardsley Club. By telephone, the dead man's brother, Robert S., was informed of what had occurred. He returned to the city and took charge of the body.

MRS. JONATHAN GODFREY

M'CREERY-On Saturday, November 25, Andrew B. McCreery, son of the late James and Fannie Crawford Mc-Creery, in his 59th year. Notice of funeral later. Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 25.—Mrs. Jonathan Godfrey died at The Oaks, Brooklawn, to-day. She was a daughter THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY. St. By Harlem Train and by to of small size for sale.

Hickson

SEMI-ANNUAL SALE

> Tailored Frocks Coats

At Customary Reductions

The world heartily concedes our tailored frocks the best.

The hundreds of models in this collection - undoubtedly the most attractive shown this season - present a wonderful opportunity to secure smart clothes.

> All Model HATS $10

Fifth Avenues at Fifty-Second Street

Mason & Hamlin PIANOS

he Mason & Hamlin Tension Resonator Pianos cost more to build, and are higher in price, than any others; but the added science, labor and time that go into their construction produce a result of unequaled beauty of tone and durability worth many times the additional price.

It is this super-excellence that distinguishes Mason & Hamlin from other fine pianos, and it is this that is paid for, in a small part, by the extra price.

Before investing in a new piano we invite you to investigate the Mason & Hamlin Tension Resonator, and what it accomplishes. MASON & HAMLIN.CO.

$13 Fifth Avenue, at 32nd Street ESTIMATES MADE OF ALLOWANCES FOR OTHER PIANOS

616 FIFTH AVENUE BETWEEN 49"AND 50" STS. Importers Creators CHINCHILLA WRAP Made of the finest skins obtainable and is a beautiful expression of the furrier's art.

HE most seasonable and sensible remark that can be made just now with regard to Furs is that it is an advantage all around to make early selections of Christmas Gifts before the inevitable hollday rush is in full force. The present chilly

Holiday Furs Motoring Furs

snap emphasizes the necessity for Automobile Furs, and we call attention to the fact that we are prepared to satisfy every possible require-

A. Jaeckel & C. 384 Fitth Avenue

Telephone, Greeley-2041

Between 85th and 86th Sts